

THE SEARCH IS ON FOR NEW LAMUDI PHILIPPINES SCHOLARS

Now on its second foray, the Lamudi Philippines Scholarship Program is again ready to award new set of exemplary students

MANILA, MARCH 29, 2017: From the successful first run of the Lamudi Philippines Scholarship Program, global property portal Lamudi Philippines decided to make helping excellent students, their mission and social responsibility.

Two new scholars will receive Php20,000 educational grant for one semester each. Likewise, the students will also be guaranteed a paid internship at Lamudi Philippines in his or her department of choice. The program is open to all college undergraduates over 18 years old and is currently in their third or fourth year of their tertiary degree and has a consistent GPA of 2.25 or higher.

“This is our way of giving back to the country for the warm welcome and patronage to our products and services. The Filipinos are forward-thinkers and can easily grasp the ever-changing landscape of business and technology. This is why we are proud to continue nurture and recognize the young minds of Filipinos that might soon be the CEO’s and leaders of the next generation,” shared Bhavna Suresh Chathambeth, CEO of Lamudi Philippines and MyProperty.ph, two of the top property portals in the country today.

Earlier this year, Lamudi has named its first ever academic scholars for academic year 2016–2017. They are Walter David Villegas, a junior development studies major at the University of the Philippines Manila, and Jaynie Pajarillaga, also a third-year enrollee taking up communications at Holy Angel University in Angeles City, Pampanga. The two bested more than 100 applicants from different schools and universities nationwide.

“We are very happy to be part of the achievements and milestones of the new breed of hardworking and diligent Filipino students,” Ms. Suresh added.

Deserving students can vie for the educational assistance as long as they provide the requirements such as a duly completed online form, creatively written cover letter, a certified copy of their academic grades, and a letter of recommendation from a relevant professor.

General eligibility, academic merit, dire financial need and strong force of character are the criteria’s that will be used in the selection of scholars.

Application submission starts this March 2017 and will run until August of this year.
